Winners Announced for 10th Annual Made In Virginia Awards

RICHMOND—The editors of Virginia Living magazine received nearly 300 entries from across the state for this year's Made in Virginia Awards. After reviewing, tasting, and testing all of them, our team has selected 34 winners to feature in the magazine's November/December 2021 issue. The winners exemplify Virginia makers' skill, talent, and creativity across a range of categories, including Food, Drink, Style & Beauty, and Home & Lifestyle. (See below for a complete list.)

"Made in Virginia 2021 features the most thoughtfully made and gorgeously crafted items that the state has to offer," said editor Constance Costas. "We're delighted to share the winning products and their makers' stories with readers across the Commonwealth. Consider this a celebration of the resilience and passion of Virginia's small business owners."

"We received so many outstanding entries, but we could only feature the winners," Costas added. "It was often tough to choose, so look for more Virginia-made foods, jewelry, personal care products, and home décor items in our upcoming 2022 issues. We're fortunate to live in a state with so many outstanding creators."

Virginia Living's November/December 2021 issue also includes tips for decorating with fresh holiday greens, a visit to Lynchburg, Keswick Hall's new restaurant—Marigold, Crozet's famous KellyBronze turkeys, designer Janie Molster's stunning update on a 300-year-old Powhatan house, chic charcuterie platters, Retirement Living news, and much more. The issue hits newsstands November 12.
